ST. LOUIS

ILLINOI MAY NOT COMPETE HERE

Team of Athletes Said to Have Engagement With Purdue on March 18.

The University of Illinois track team, which was to have entered ten men in the St. Louis University indoor meet at the Jai-Alai on March 18, will not send representatives.

While Coach Delaney has not been officially notified that the men will not compete in his meet, it is very probable that the Illinois will be absent, as it is said that they have a dual meet scheduled for March 18 with Purdue.

Coach Delaney is not worried, however. He departed for Milwaukee last night to attend the National A. A. U. championships there to-morrow, and will make a bid for the champion relay team to compete against Indiana and also for men in his invitation events.

About four weeks ago when Delaney began making entries for his meet, he was informed by George Huff, manager of athletics at the University of Illinois, that they would come on March 18 or 19. Delaney asked for two special men and a relay team, but it was decided to send a team of ten men to try for the point trophy. The Illinois squad won the dual meet from Chicago last Saturday.

Should Illinois appear, the St. Louis team that will relay the championship at Milwaukee it would furnish a good attraction, as the Illinois team is said to have a fast quartet of quarter-milers.

A relay team was training at the Jai-Alai yesterday afternoon. The circuit track and the straightaway for the dashes are now completed.

In the early part of the afternoon, the Interscholastic League teams were there, while later, Delaney's Men's came out for their work. The school, Smith and Egan, Manual Training School, and the Vandewater Athletic Club squads went through hard work.

Manual Training School has a promising looking squad. They are larger than the boys who have been at school recently and the chances for the relay team look good.

The team will be selected from Lewis, Weidell, Morton, Franquemont, Mackey and Wilcox. In the sprints are Helman and Lewis, while Weidell will start in the 60 yards handicap.

Coach Hamm of High School has not received his relay team, but will know by to-morrow night. Promising runners are: Duncanson, Lewis, Chivvis, Oliver, Martin, Pritchard and Weber.

Five Bluff Receives Pennant.

Five Bluff, Ark., March 9.—Five Bluff has just received the baseball pennant, won last season in the Cotton States League. On the opening day of the season the pennant will be raised at the end of a sixty-foot pole in the ball park. Appropriate ceremonies will mark the raising.

Senator Kinney's Course Approved.

At the meeting of the Carr Place Protective and Improvement Association Wednesday night, Mayo Foster, secretary of the Civic Improvement League, lectured on the work of that organization. Resolutions were adopted commending the work of Senator Thomas E. Kinney for the passage of his educational bill, and requesting him to support the bill to repeal the breeders' law.

Carroll Going to Tampa.

Pela Carroll, the little Cuban dancer, is preparing for his work in Tampa, Fla. He intends to start about the first of next week. He expects to go from town to town, walking and running until he reaches Tampa. He will wear a sign bearing the inscription, "The Champion Cuban Dancer."

Joe Sugden is in the best condition possible for this time of the year. As the backstop shows up out of shape, but he is looking good and moving around with the celerity of a cat. Sugden is not pegging them to second very much, but he is looking good and moving around with the celerity of a cat.

Weaver, the Browns' recruit, is showing up splendidly. He is hitting the ball well and his receiving is all that could be asked for. He is one of the most graceful throwers in the business, and his great height makes him able to shoot the ball to second with excellent results. Weaver looks for the Browns to prove a valuable man for the Browns. He resembles Lou Criger somewhat, in that if he can hold out he will certainly make some of the fans and critics of the American League circuit.

He is also a good man on fouls, and it looks as though McAlister has made a big thing out of him. He is a good man on fouls, and it looks as though McAlister has made a big thing out of him.

Harry betrays to his admirers that he is over to Fort Worth, an elderly lady boarded the train at a cross station. She immediately singled Harry out as a clerkman, and began to tell him how wicked some of the men in Texas were. Harry was sitting on the bench, and he was very much pleased with him, and continued him on the bench, before she was acquainted with Harry's past and present condition of employment. Finally, the old lady got ready to get off. Before leaving she gave to Harry some motherly opinions about affairs of the clergy, and required of Howell the denunciation he represented Harry told the old lady that he was not a preacher, but was making a will attempt to continue to be a diamond celebrity. She was a bit shocked at Harry's levity, but not knowing what to do, she continued to talk to him. She was a bit shocked at Harry's levity, but not knowing what to do, she continued to talk to him.
